WHEREAS, around the United States significant number of puppies and kittens sold at pet stores come from large-scale, commercial breeding facilities (hereinafter "puppy mills" and "kitten mills," respectively); and

WHEREAS, according to The Humane Society of the United States, it is estimated that 10,000 puppy mills produce more than 2,400,000 puppies a year in the United States and that most pet store dogs and cats come from puppy mills and kitten mills; and

WHEREAS, the documented abuses endemic to puppy and kitten mills include over-breeding; inbreeding; minimal to non-existent veterinary care; lack of adequate and nutritious food, water and shelter; lack of socialization; lack of adequate space; and lack of adequate exercise; and

WHEREAS, the inhumane conditions in puppy and kitten mill facilities lead to health, welfare and behavioral issues in the animals bred in those facilities; and

WHEREAS, current Federal and State of Maine regulations do not thoroughly address the sale of puppy and kitten mill dogs and cats in pet stores; and

WHEREAS, restricting the retail sale of puppies and kittens to those sourced from shelters or rescue organizations is likely to decrease the demand for puppies and kittens bred in puppy and kitten mills; and

WHEREAS, restricting the retail sale of puppies and kittens to only those that are sourced from animal shelters and rescue organizations will likely reduce pet overpopulation and thus the burden on such agencies and financial costs on local taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, the City Council for the City of Portland hereby finds that it is in the best interests of the City of Portland to adopt reasonable regulations to reduce costs to the City and its residents, protect the citizens of the City who may purchase cats or dogs from a pet store or other business establishment, help prevent inhumane breeding conditions, promote community awareness of animal welfare, and foster a more humane environment in the City;
